DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendments to the claims, in the submission dated 7/30/08, are acknowledged and accepted.

Priority

2. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on an applications filed in Germany on 4/15/03 and 2/12/04 and PCT/EP2004/003550 filed on 4/2/04. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed certified copies of the 10317428.1 and 102004006836.4 applications, as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 20-25, 27 and 30-31 are allowed.

Claims 20-25, 27 and 30-31 are allowable over the prior art of record for at least the reason that even though the prior art discloses devices for optically scanning a medium, the device comprising: deflection mirror means including a deflection surface adapted to deflect light beams incident thereon and having a normal extending rectangularly to the deflection surface, drive means coupled to the deflection mirror means for rotating the deflection mirror means about an axis of rotation, the surface normal being angularly tilted relative to the axis of rotation, the deflection mirror means being located in a bearing-mounted fitting and provided with at least one compensation mass means adapted to compensate for imbalances during rotation so that the axis of rotation coincides with a principal axis of inertia of a combination consisting of the deflection mirror means and the fitting, wherein the position of the compensation mass means relative to the deflection mirror means can be adjusted, the deflection mirror means can be pivoted about a pivot axis perpendicular to the axis of rotation and means for adjusting the angular tilt between the axis of rotation and the mirror normal, the prior art fails to teach or reasonably suggest, that the compensation mass means is pivotable relative to the deflection mirror means about the pivot axis of the deflection mirror means. Claims 21-25, 27 and 30-31 are dependent on claim 20 and are allowable for at least the same reasons claim 20 is allowable.
